Willing to Accept the Collectorship of the Port.

Col. Erhardt Ready to Go Out on Saturday.

Barney Biglin and Lew Payn Say Erhardt Was a Load on the Party.

INY ASSOCIATED PRESS.1 Washington, July 30.—In the course of an interview published this morning relative to his appointment as Collector of the Port of New York, Mr. Passett, after being shown the despatch containing the news, said:

"I had, of course, received an intimation that I might be named for the Collectorship. but as the hint did not come from the President or from any one who personally represented him, I did not feel at liberty to talk. Collectorship is the absorbing tople of interest just now among the Government employees.

Everybody who holds a position of importance and responsibility is on the anxious seat again. With the coming in of Senator Fassatt it is possible that the heads of all the present chiefs of departments will fall into the basket.

Not immediately, perhaps, but as soon as the new collector has a chance to settle down to flushness, take in the situation and discuss matters with his chief, ex-Senator Thomas C. Platt, who now rules the Republican roost in this State beyond a doubt.

Special Deputy Collector J. J. Couch, who bashes Chief Cierk of the Customs; Cashier W. L. Desawick, Deputies John H. Gunner, Wilson Berryman, W. G. Williams, Dents Shan, Charles A. Burr, Levi M. Gano, Dutley P. Pricips and Auditor Henry G. Stanweed, who formed Collector Ethard's prive caused any time by the new Collector and their places filled with men of his own selection.

It is believed that the present arrangement was all cut and dried several weeks ago and that the appointment of Senator Pissett was a foregone conclusion as soon as Collector Erhard's Erhard had sent in his resignation.

"The cince is no longer independent, and I am. Therefore we have separated."

Ex. Senator Platt has not been seen in the Custom house for the past two years, although before that he was a pretty regular Matter then. It is no secret that he and the Collector have been "out." for many moons, or that the astate Republican politician has been on a still hunt for the Colonel's scalp ever since he found that he could not manage him.

the Republican party would be better off today by themsands of votes.

He declared that President Harrison should have appointed Senator Fessett originally, and that his recognition at this time demonstrates that the Executive is learning something of politics.
